HISTORY

Built in 1834 by Robert Conroy, the British Hotel represents the best of bilingual heritage of western Québec. Its thick stone walls and hand hewn timbers were lovingly restored by Belmont Properties for over four years starting in 2011.

The British Hotel continues a proud Aylmer tradition that's hosted Prime Ministers and princes, rock stars and country music legends, scallywags and many beautiful memorable weddings ! Today, the legend continues into the 21st century, as this modern oasis proudly presents luxury hotel accommodations, banquet facilities, live performances and light fare in a family-friendly atmosphere.

Our staff embodies the multi-lingual global culture that is modern Québec, with a panache that is leading the rebirth of Old Aylmer. Since you are now part of this proud tradition, we welcome you with our mantra :
« What happens at the British, stays at the British ! »
